Declared Zone (A-G) Zone _____

You must declare one zone in which you fish the majority of your lobster traps.

Voting District (1-12)

You must select one voting district within your declared zone above which best represents the way you fish.

District

Zone(s) in which you intend to fish

$A \square B \square C \square D \square E \square F \square G \square$

You may place traps only in zones selected above.

No fishing zone changes will be allowed once this license has been issued. Your trap limit is determined by the most restrictive zone selected. You must fish a majority of traps in your declared zone. To fish in both Zones B and C or both Zones F and G, you must purchase second zone tags.

Trap Tags

Number of trap tags _____at $0.50 each $____ See enclosed tag policy regarding replacement and exchange tags. All traps in use must be tagged. Under Title 12, $6431-F restrictions apply based on the number of trap tags purchased last year.

Allow up to 4-6 weeks for delivery. 2018 tags must be on traps by June 1- no exceptions. Tags must be designated to a specific boat in Part C – Supplemental Information. Owner has priority over tag limits for boat. Undesignated tags will be unregistered and shall not be used to fish.

Sign and date in Part D: Certification on back.

ATTENTION SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES LICENSE HOLDERS

All requests for lobster trap tags that would put any vessel in violation of the lobster trap tag vessel limitation must be made to the department in writing. If you requested a special circumstance last year, and nothing has changed, you do not need to submit any further information to the Department. If you are requesting a special circumstance this year, the request must be specific and, in the case of double tagging, include ALL parties involved along with the vessel information. Any such approvals that are granted will be in the form of a special circumstances permit, under Title 12, Chapter 25.08(F). Any fishing activity not expressly authorized in the special circumstances permits granted by the Commissioner shall be a violation of the law and subject to prosecution.

Please contact Major Rene Cloutier if you have any questions regarding Special Circumstances at 207-624-6555
